VISION 1991, VOL. 57

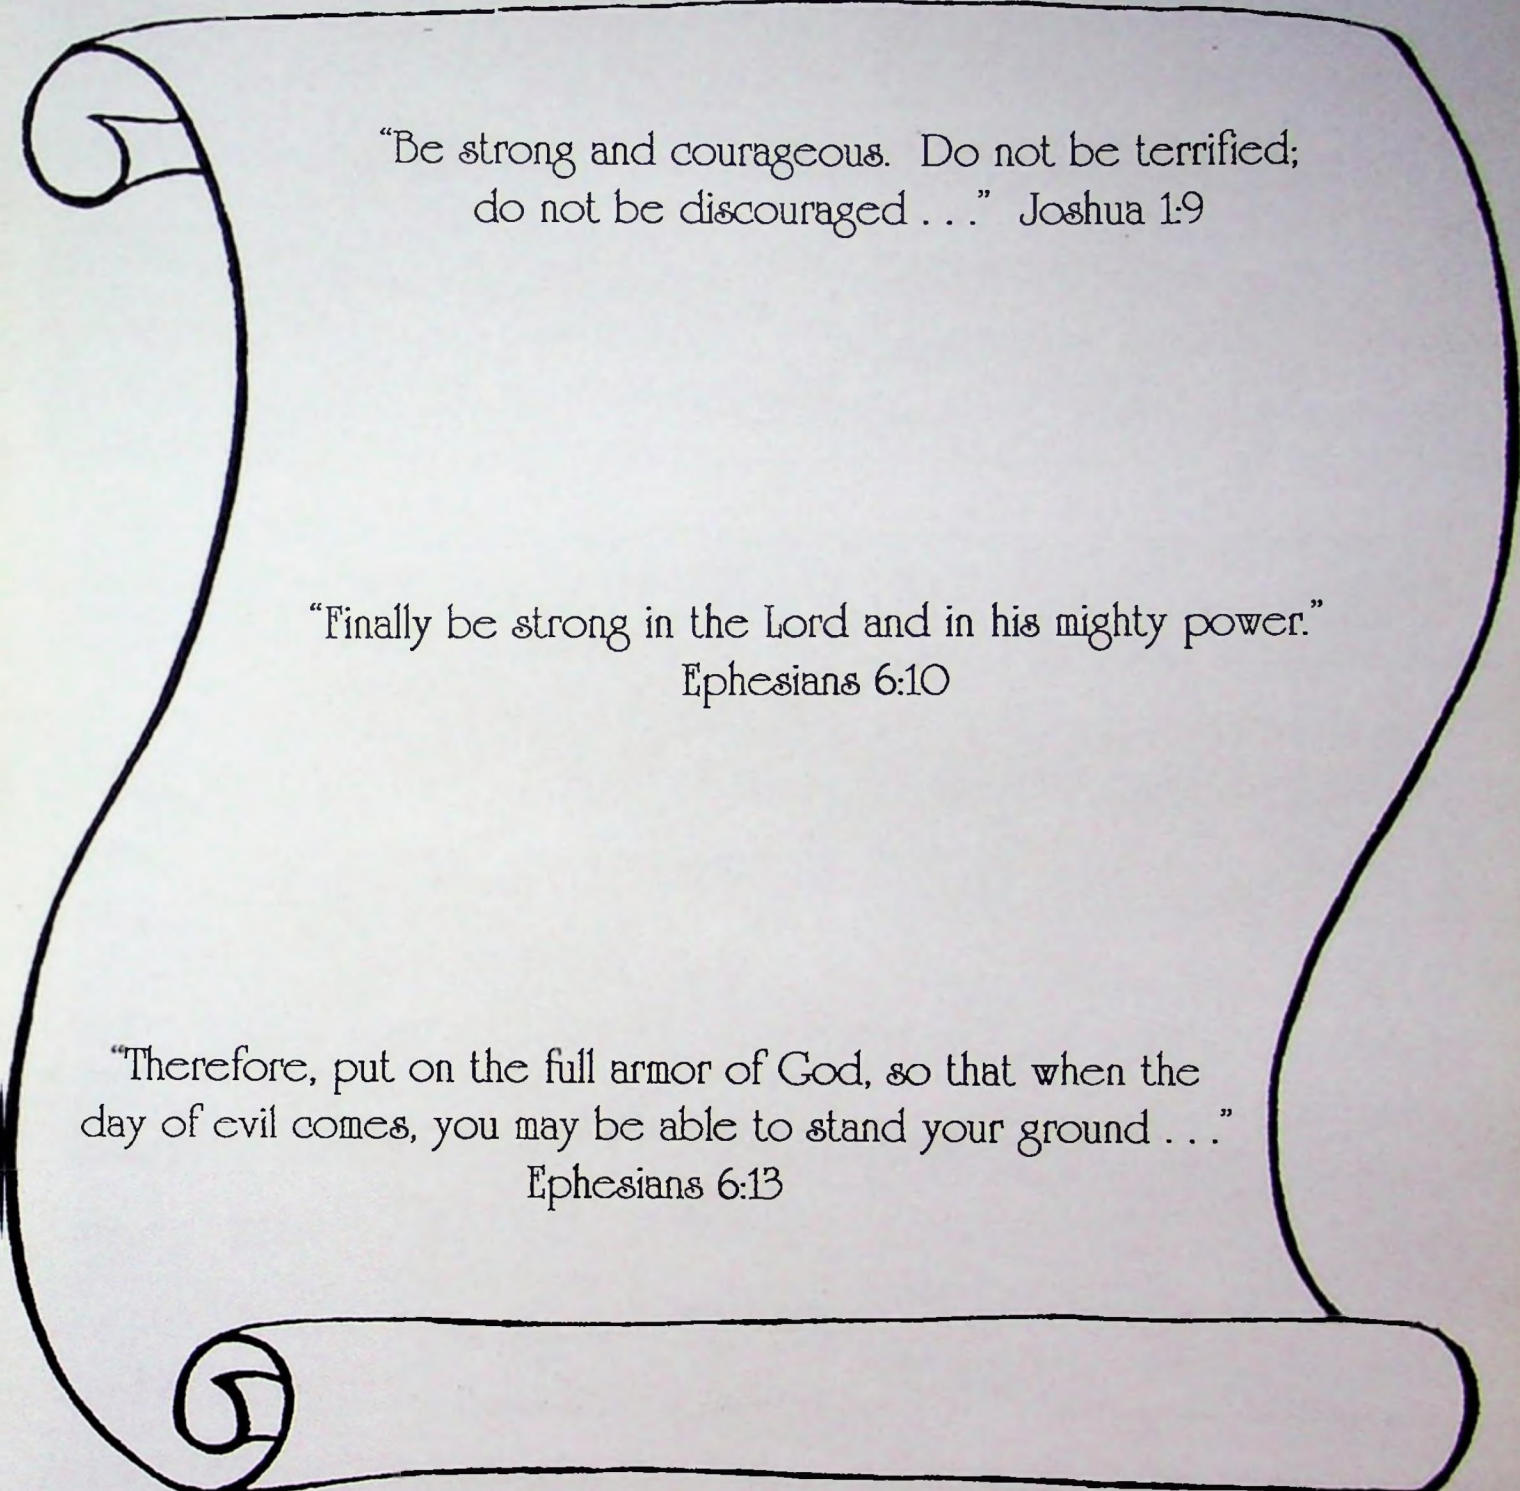

Manhattan Christian College

1415 Anderson Ave • Manhattan, KS 66502.

"I have only one passion.

It is He, He alone."

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified;
do not be discouraged . . ." Joshua 1:9

"Finally be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power."
Ephesians 6:10

"Therefore, put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground . . ."
Ephesians 6:13

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men.”

— Col. 3:23

1990-1991 was an exciting year for MCC's Student Council. Under the leadership of President Tracey Diaz, the group set goals to reach out more to not only the community, but especially to K-State. One of the most exciting events of the fall was the Reach Out Rally which, through the efforts of Stuco and various KSU groups, brought several hundred Christians together for a two day effort at uniting the groups and praising God. The efforts of this rally resulted in a Christian council that was formed at K-State to encourage awareness among Christian students at KSU and MCC.

Even with all that was happening between the two schools, Stuco still found time to sponsor many events at MCC also. Some of these include: chapel with the Continental Singers; Faculty/Staff appreciation day; Spring Banquet; and the building of the sand volleyball pit. These events and others were planned and carried out by the many Stuco committees: Student Spiritual Life; Student Activities (SAC), Athletic Committee, Concert Committee, Yearbook Committee, singing club, and dorm and class representatives. The efforts of many people made 1990-1991 a successful year of outreach for the MCC Student Council.

Christian Action

Part of being a student at Manhattan Christian College includes being active in some type of "Christian Action". The students are involved in a variety of ministries as a part of this requirement. These ministries range from being a Big Brother/Big Sister to tutoring a Manhattan youth through friendship tutoring. Some students are involved in school sponsored activities such as ADteam, Student Spiritual Life Committee, Gospel teams, discipleship pairs, and others. Christian Action allows students to become involved in ministries that meet their own interests and strengths.

Many of the students at MCC are involved in the two ministries featured on these two pages, CYCI and Campus Life. CYCI (Christian Youth Crusade International) is a weekly after school program sponsored by a local church that allows students to teach or help with classes of school age children. Campus Life is a national program that allows college students to work with youth outside of the church setting which gives the opportunity to reach out to un-churched youth. Both of these ministry opportunities give students a chance to interact directly with kids, both inside and outside the church.

- ◆ Tanya Pruess boosts this child's spirit through her work with CYC.
- ◆ "Hey lady, no talking while I'm speaking," protests Dennis Bloodworth as he speaks to his Campus Life group.
- ◆ "I thought we only did this stuff in school" (Laurie Swingle with her CYC class)
- ◆ "Hey, is this really necessary?" ask Lynette Thompson and Darren Key during a Campus Life meeting.

- ◆ "Hey, did you hear about the one where ... " (Robynn Tolbert with a member of her CYC class).
- ◆ Jami Frey "salutes" Tanya Pruess from the bottom of her heart. (CYC)
- ◆ Buddy ol' pals (Adam Stokes with a campus life buddy).
- ◆ Jodi Haun shares some verses with her CYC class.
- ◆ Kami Umbarger and Tiffany Ronning prepare to minister to the campus life kids.

Student Ministries

Practical ministry is a big part of the degree programs at Manhattan Christian College. Many of our students, especially upperclassmen, are involved in some type of ministry position. There is always a demand for supply preachers for area churches, and many students hold permanent positions as Ministers, Associate Ministers, Music Ministers, or Youth Ministers. There are also a variety of Christian organization that employ our students, such as the local Christian radio station, Angel 95. Other students seek to minister to people in more nontraditional ways such as through mission opportunities through agencies like CIY. But no matter what ministry they are involved in, MCC students are always prepared to use their classroom knowledge to further the kingdom of God!

—1 Pet. 4:10

Celebration Singers

Celebration Singers displayed their passion for the Kingdom through various concerts and events. Singers hit the road in the fall with musical "Room 77" written by Wayne Watson. The tour covered western Kansas and stopped at the Kansas Christian Convention. At Christ-mas the community was invited to sing Handel's "Mes-siah" with Singers. "Glorify the Lamb" was the passion play performed during the Easter season. The year ended with a tour through Northcentral United States and To-ronto, Canada.

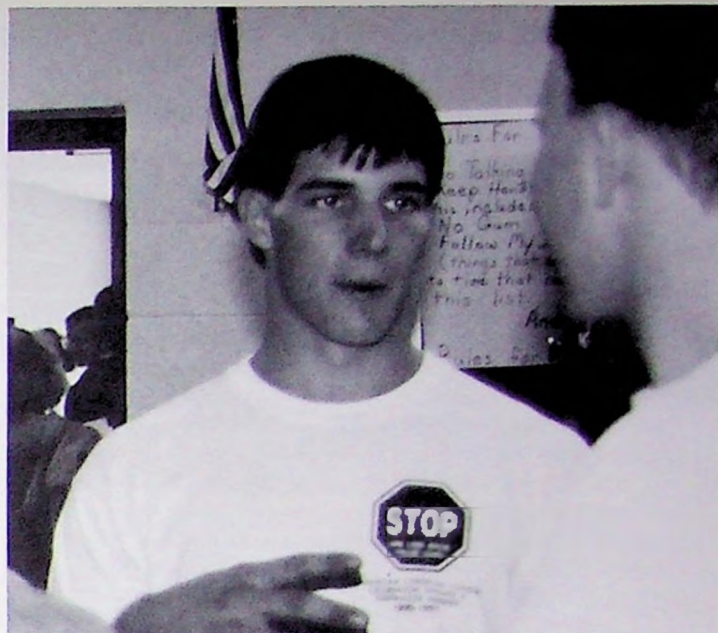

Celebration Singers: Holly Anderson, Stephanie Bickel, Wendy Boulais, Grant Boyd, Dwight Bradshaw, Heather Brooks, Theresa Campbell, Donna Carmen, Sheri Charbonneau, R.D. Cogswell, Tracey Diaz, Fang Ning, Troy Gilmore, Michelle Guthrie, Staci Hall, Jon Hansen, Jodi Haun, Laurin Hill, Audrey Hockett, Kevin Kelly, Todd Manes, Dan Mitchell, Calana Needham, Kami Nelson, Adam Ormord, Heath Ormord, Barry Park, Derek Shacklett, Jeff Sieh, Mitzi Wiland, Travis Wilson.

◆ "Help a mime locked me in a box and I can't get out!"

◆ "Ru-by! Ru-by! Ru-by!"

◆ "I have a headache this big!"

◆ "See, the reason I'm late this time is . . ."

◆ "Agh! This room is a mess!"

◆ Singers conveyed the message of Jesus Christ through "God So Loved the World."

◆ Jaws drop as Ruby Ann tells how many extra hours of rehearsal there will be this week.

Inspiration Ringers

1990-1991 was a busy year for MCC's handbell choir. Not only did they perform with Celebration Singers in various concerts, but they also were given the opportunity to perform on their own for a Christmas luncheon and attend a Hand Bell Festival. With student directors, Laurin Hill and Adam Ormord, this nine member choir conquered many difficult pieces such as Hopak, which challenged them to use varying techniques such as shelly-ringing and the use of mallets. Inspiration Ringers completed their year by joining Celebration Singers on a two week tour through the northern states and Canada.

- ◆ "I wonder if the Hunch back of Notre Dame had days like this?"
- ◆ Watch - out Tim: Theresa swings a mean bell.
- ◆ "Silver Bells ... Ring-a-ling, hear them ring ..."

▲ Marsha leads the bell choir in lifting praises to God.

▲ Casually, Laurin and Janae ring bells.

▲ "Where did that note come from?" asks Theresa.

▲ Beautiful music cascades from the bells of Staci and Marsha.

▲ A bright smile helps pre-concert nerves.

Triumphant Sound

Triumphant Sound represented MCC not only throughout the midwest, but also in Arizona and California where they travelled during Spring Break. This scholarship group performed in many churches and for other events during the year, representing the college with their ministry oriented concerts. They were definitely "Well on Their Way"!

Calana Needham, Heath Ormord, Tracey Diaz, Kami Nelson, Jon Hanson, Wendy Boulais, Barry Park, and Laurin Hill.

- T.S. spreads the love of Christ at the Rally.
- ◆ Praising God in a rappin' way. (Calana)
- ◆ Big ball's turnin' ... long as the big ball's turnin' ...

- ◆ Calana, Laurin, and Kami model the "Zona/Cal" tour shirts.
- ◆ Preach it John!
- ◆ Freeze, This is the police!
- ◆ First Call to party.
- ◆ Pump it up, Heath and Kamil

Promise

▲ Promise performs in Mooreland, Oklahoma.

▲ At times the stress of being "leader" overcomes Staci.

◆ Promise: Staci Hall, Troy Gilmore, Jami Frey, Angie Sherrill, Robynn Tolbert.

▲ "Are you sure the green motel room doesn't need fish?"

◆ Crazy pictures were part of every road trip.

C.S./I.R. Fall Tour

This fall, Celebration Singers and Inspiration Ringers took to the road for an exciting tour of western Kansas. The tour began at the Kansas Christian Convention in Dodge City. They then proceeded to places such as Norton and Protection, Kansas where they were given the opportunity to perform their youth musical, Room 77, as well as their formal concert. Seeing the exciting sites of Kansas made this a fun-filled tour for the group!

▲ "Bessie" and "Lardo" really enjoy the sack lunches from their hosts!

◆ Calana misses out on the gorgeous view as the tour bus travels to Garden City!

▲ "Got another quarter?"

▲ Dwight and Jon get what they deserved from the fall tour group.

▲ Dwight finds tickling the ivory amusing to himself.

◆ Annette Setzer, Dwight Bradshaw and Jon Hanson perform at a student recital.

▲ Roman soldiers watch as Jesus is questioned by Ciaphas, during "Glorify the Lamb."

◆ The gospel team "Ransomed" (Michelle Guthrie, Rachelle Winterrowd, Theresa Campbell).

♥ "Heeeeath!"

♥ Dr. Caulley and Dr. Wolfe were guest musicians at the Messiah Sing-A-Long.

♥ "Stick 'em up, Kim!"

♥ Jesus (David Brundage) washes disciple's feet.

- ◆ Dwight Bradshaw and his David Letterman imitation at Late Night with Dwight.

Reach-Out Rally

1990 was the first year for MCC to hold a "Reach Out" rally with Kansas State University. The purpose was to get MCC students together with Christians from K-State for a time of worship and fellowship. Together with several campus ministries (Icthus, InterVarsity, and FCA), our Student Council planned this two day event which included a concert with Billy Sprague. The students' hard work paid off when nearly 300 KSU and MCC students fellowshiped together for the first time!

◆ Don Wilson, minister of Christ's Church of the Valley in Phoenix, Arizona, was the featured speaker for the first night of the Rally.

◆ Billy Sprague quickly trains his back-up choir for the next song.

◆ Blake LaMunyon directs this "human machine" during the ice breaker competition led by FCA.

◆ Eis Auton, the college ensemble from Westview Community Church, share special music during Thursday's chapel service at MCC.

◆ Marci Murfin smiles with friends Natalie McVay, Niki Stewart, and Paula Ratliff, happy that all her Rally organization meetings are over.

◆ Students from Kansas State and MCC worship together at All Faiths Chapel.

Senior Soliloquy 1991

It's time to consider the seniors, as we send them on their way.
So let's get with the times and give a rap. What do ya' say?
It may surprise you that rap isn't new,
But it was hot in Harlem way back in '32.

Now rap these days comes from Tom, Dick, and Harry.
It isn't very musical, but may be literary.
So just lean back, and let's have a little fun.
As wise ole Solomon said, "There's nothin' new beneath the sun."

Intelligent Derrick Bohn's headin' for the hills of Tennessee.
He's gonna' have to practice talkin' like a hillbilly.
He'll ask those pros out there a question or ten.
At least back here, that's exactly how he's been.

Beautiful Tracey Diaz is our lady of style,
She makes us feel good with her extra special smile.
Quiet at times, she's vivacious at others.
She likes it where it's warm; at least, that's her druthers.

Now tall Doug Dunn is carling man.
The last of twin towers, he's a sport medic fan.
He's friendly to everyone who comes around,
Especially to Becky; does that you astound?

Sweet Becky Dunn will be missed around here.
This fun-lovin' lady is just full of good cheer.
She has a smile that won't quit, and a way with a word.
You heard that she likes animals? Well, that's absurd.

Bubbly Kelley Hall dislikes the blatant hypocritical.
With her rare sense of humor, she is very analytical.
She combines sign language with her kindness of heart.
The way she enjoys life is — well, quite an art.

Our own Paul Hill is a West Texas guy.
Laid back guitar picker, he's really not shy.
He keeps a free spirit, doesn't go with the crowd.
His dry sense of humor keeps us laughing out loud.

Wild Bill Hocker is a selfless man,
Headin' for the ministry to serve where he can.
He has his hands full with work, school, home, and child.
Our Bill's a special breed; he's a mild wild.

About Michelle Kline, well, what shall we say?
She's labored in our offices for many a day.
She's worked for Rich, and rich we hope she'll be.
Her helpful, courteous ways result from her great philanthropy.

Blake LaMunyon is an optimist, not a cynic.
He's the drummer expert who could make our rap authentic.
He doesn't join the masses, and thus avoids the messes.
And where he'll end up on of these days, there's not a soul who guesses.

Non-traditional Jeff Langley doesn't follow the norm.
With air conditioning and heating, he is never lukewarm.
A dedicated student, he commutes an hour each way.
He's earned his graduation — that's what his wife and children say.

Friendly Deb Lundgren, with the teeth like pearls,
Has been the "mother" of a houseful of girls.
She's banned the pizza from their diet, and set early hours of quiet.
I bet you can't mock her accent, but you really ought to try it.

Musical, athletic Todd Manes is spontaneous, too.
Is he ornery or not? I'll leave that to you.
With a talented wife, and a love for youth,
He's gonna' make it big, and that's the truth.

Singer Kari Nelson lets you know where she stands.
Responsible, energetic, she does what a job demands.
Her fetish for confetti gives one professor fits.
She's a happy, homebred Okie; what cha' see is what cha' gets.

Sound man Jeff Setzer has a servant's heart.
He's a background guy who makes service an art.
His quiet, gentle spirit's been boon to our clan.
His good wife Annette agrees he's quite a man.

LeeAnn Sidebottom, our airport connoisseur,
Is two — times tennis champ — not a amateur.
With her degree in horticulture she will head
Back to Thailand, where she feels led.

Happy Terri Spurgeon is well loved around here.
She lends a lot of cheer to the atmosphere.
She's hardworking, studious, contented, too.
She's trained several registrars; without her, what'll we do?

Our Bill Thomas is a scholar, for sure.
Because of his talents, his success is secure.
In preaching and Bible bowl, he has a glorious past,
But he won't rest on laurels; his commitment is vast.

Next is David Warren, who is here for round two.
He has a B.S. and a Th. B., too.
He's won so many T-shirts from M.C.C.,
He might decide to come back for another degree.

Romantic Mike Willich is inventive as can be,
Proposing to Cindy under the Wareham marquee.
He likes to work with young folks, and likes to have fun,
Yet he has a serious side; his good works have just begun.

Now about our seniors you know more than you had hoped.
But from the looks on your faces, it seems that you have coped.
Well, that's our rap, call it "pseudo" if you like.
So what do you expect from an English teacher, anyway?

MAN
CHRISTIA

We are proud of those MCC students, family, and friends who sacrificed their time and effort to play a part in maintaining the peace of the nations. This yearbook is dedicated to everyone who struggled so valiantly to make Operation Desert Storm a success. God Bless You All.

1991 Last Will & Testament

We the Class of 1991 being of somewhat sound mind and body do hereby will the following:

Derrick Bohn - to Dr. Warren, my salvation book and 3x5 cards

Tracey Diaz - to Pookey Poulson, my motorcycle; to Marvin Rupe, my coaching skills; and to Dennis Glenn, my coffee mugs

Becky Dunn - to a deserving volleyball player, my XL volleyball shorts

Doug Dunn - to Rabbi, an endless supply of tylenol for being my advisor and senior class sponsor; to "Doc" Warren, my verticle jump and basketball ability; and to Marvin Rupe, my taping and training skills

Kelley Hall - to future Rick Townsend secretaries, the following handbooks:

"How to Type Townsend Notes Without Blushing"

"How to Read Townsend's Handwriting Without Screaming in Frustration"

Paul Hill - to Dennis Glenn, the feathers from my chin

Bill Hocker - to future freshmen, my ability to get all my assignments done on time

Michelle Kline - to Rich Nischan, the plant care in the accounting office

Blake LaMunyon - to "Doc" Warren, my perfect attendance; to Mr. Isom, my sliding ability; to Rick Wright, my Ninja Turtle comic books; and to Dr. Glenn, my youth

Deb Lundgren - to Rick Wright, next year's Johnson Hall Dorm Supervisors, and all the resident hall assistants who follow after me; the trials, tribulations, and midnight water fights in the freshman dorm, and my ear plugs

Todd Manes - my song-leading ability and an extra five dollars for guitar lessons to Blake LaMunyon; my three point shot to "Doc" Warren; my ability to find a wife to Doug Fletcher and Justin Moxley; a real stereo with thumping speakers to Kelley Hayes; to any student, best of luck in ditching Larry Sullivan's class without getting caught; to John "Pook" Poulson, my T.S blazer because I will never wear it and it will go just fine with your wardrobe; to Dr. Caulley, all the Greek finite infinitives and dangling participles that are in existence; and finally all my Nintendo cartridges and regular haircuts to Rick Wright

Kami Nelson - to John Poulson, my Oklahoma lingo

Jeff Setzer - to maintenance, my close hangers for opening car doors

LeeAnn Sidebottom - to Marvin Rupe, my tennis playing ability so that he can teach the women of MCC to play tennis and continue her domination of the conference

Terri Spurgeon - to Marvin Rupe, the haunt of my laugh

Bill Thomas - to Steve Webb, all my back Greek assignments so he will have something to do this summer

David "L.B." Warren - the man with no will and no middle name gets one from Mr. Isom

Mike Willich - to Dennis Glenn, John Poulson, and Marvin Rupe, my golf swing; to "Doc" Warren and Hiram Cassel, my hair; and to Larry Sullivan my old Western Civilization tests
